This contemporary villa is set inside the immaculate Fairmont Place complex, the ideal home for a family looking for more space or the downsizer who values privacy. Two decent sized bedrooms afford plenty of storage with mirrored built in wardrobes.

Open plan living and dining with optional breakfast bar attached to the kitchen, leaves room for versatile layout. East facing courtyard adds plenty of space for entertaining, with access to swimming pool and common function room. Set back from the road and with just one common wall, this villa offers a complete sense of peace with low maintenance.
